ANTI-RAGGING DAY AND WEEK 2025 (12.08.2025-18.08.2025) INAUGURATION (12.08.2025)

Department of Humanities and Sciences, (I B.Tech) of Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus (GNITC), observed “The Inaugural Function of the Anti-Ragging Day and Week 2025” on 12th August 2025 at Guru Gobind Singh Auditorium. The programme aimed to raise awareness among students about the ill effects of ragging and to reinforce the institution’s unwavering commitment towards maintaining a ragging-free campus.

The event featured a series of awareness messages from the Assistant Director, Dr. B. Kedarnath, Joint Director, Dr. P. Parthasaradhy, and the Chief Guests- Sri K. Ramakrishnan (SIP), Rachakonda Police Commissionerate, Ibrahimpatnam, and Sri M. Mahender Reddy, Station House Officer (SHO), Rachakonda Police Commissionerate, Ibrahimpatnam. Each speaker emphasised the importance of mutual respect, harmony, and adherence to legal provisions among students. The Chief Guests’ addresses were particularly impactful, highlighting the laws against ragging and the constructive role of youth in eradicating this menace.

As part of the programme, 2nd and 3rd-year students participated in the Anti-Ragging Pledge, reaffirming their commitment to fostering a safe and inclusive academic environment. The pledge-taking ceremony proved to be a symbolic and powerful moment, reflecting the collective responsibility of the campus community.

The inaugural function successfully set the stage for a week of engaging activities, competitions, and awareness campaigns-all in alignment with GNITC’s dedication to creating and sustaining a ragging-free educational environment.

EVENTS

13.08.2025

Anti-Ragging Committee of GNITC in collaboration with the Department of Humanities and Sciences, Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus (GNITC), continued its observance of “Anti-Ragging Day and Week 2025” with Poster Making and Slogan Writing competitions held on 13th August 2025. These creative events aimed to inspire students to express their commitment to a ragging-free campus through art and impactful words.

Participants from the 2nd and 3rd years showcased their talent and social awareness by designing posters and crafting slogans that reflected the ill effects of ragging, the importance of harmony, and the spirit of mutual respect. The vibrant artworks and thought-provoking slogans not only demonstrated artistic excellence but also conveyed strong messages on the significance of upholding a safe and inclusive academic environment.

The judgement of the winners was carried out by Assistant Director cum Anti-Ragging Committee Co-ordinator, Dr. B. Kedarnath, whose keen evaluation recognised the most creative and impactful entries. These competitions formed an integral part of the week-long anti-ragging awareness campaign, reinforcing GNITC’s vision of cultivating a responsible, respectful, and legally conscious student community. The enthusiastic participation and creative expressions truly reflected the collective voice of the campus against ragging.

The Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC) of Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus, in collaboration with the Department of Humanities and Sciences (GNITC), organised a series of engaging activities on 14th August 2025 as part of the Anti-Ragging Week Celebrations. The events aimed to create awareness among students about the harmful consequences of ragging, promote unity, and foster a culture of mutual respect within the campus community.

The day commenced with the Essay Writing Competition, where students from various departments actively participated, expressing their views and perspectives on the theme “Eradicating Ragging: Towards a Safer Campus”. Secondly, Short Film Selections were conducted, where student teams presented their short film concepts and preliminary footage based on the anti-ragging theme. The shortlisted films will be screened during the valedictory session of the Anti-Ragging Week. Following this, a Flash Mob was performed in the open space of the campus with powerful anti-ragging messages on the placards. The creative blend of art and advocacy drew the attention of a large audience, creating a memorable and impactful awareness message of a ragging-free campus, leaving a lasting impression on both participants and viewers.

VALEDICTORY (21.08.2025)

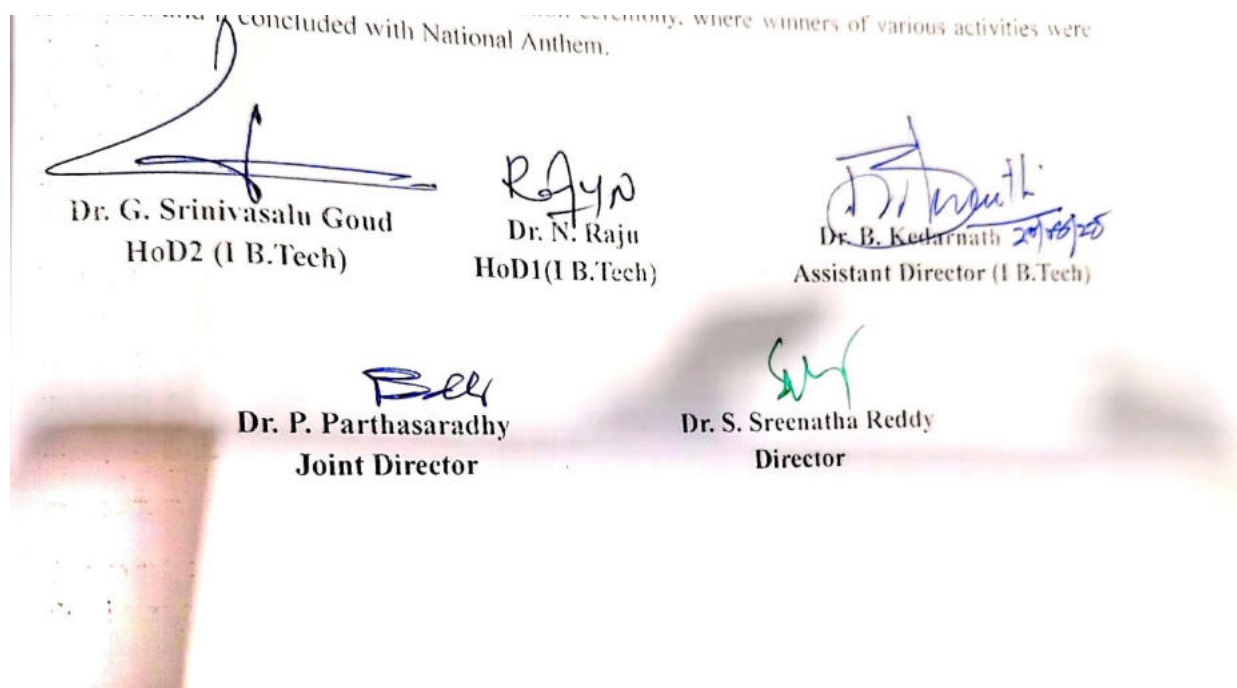

The Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC) of Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus, in collaboration with the Department of Humanities and Sciences, organized the Closing Ceremony of Anti-Ragging Week observance today (21st August 2025). The event, held in the presence of first-year students of 2025 batch along with enthusiastic participants from the 2nd and 3rd years, aimed to spread awareness about the harmful consequences of ragging and to foster a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment.

The ceremony was graced by the Director, Assistant Director (I-B.Tech.), and the Head of Humanities and Sciences, who addressed the students of the 2025 batch. They reiterated the institution's zero-tolerance policy on ragging and emphasized the importance of mutual respect, unity, and a nurturing academic atmosphere.

Throughout the week, students of 2nd and 3rd year took part in awareness programs, competitions, and cultural activities, all designed to strengthen peer bonding and encourage positive interactions.

The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where winners of various activities were felicitated and it concluded with National Anthem.
