

About Guru Nanak Startup Hub

Guru Nanak Startup Hub is established as the Incubation and Entrepreneurship Development Center (IEDC) at Guru Nanak Institutions Technical Campus to nurture the creative spirit and enhance the leadership qualities of our students. The GNITC's - Guru Nanak Startup Hub has been recognized as the Host Institute facility under the Development Commissioner - New Delhi for mentoring, ideation and startup funding. The area dedicated to Guru Nanak Startup Hub is around 5600 Sq.ft which comprises of 10 cubicles as office space for business incubates Tinkering, Sandbox lab Space, Technology Room, Director and Manager meeting room and training rooms for students. Advisory committee is formed comprising of eminent engineers from industries, scientists from research lab, senior manager of bank, Deans and Director from the host institute. The advisory committee is approved by Board of Governors of the institute.

With the above initiatives Guru Nanak Startup Hub is paying path to create successful entrepreneur with adequate support at the early stage of businesses to create immense value, and to provide constant access to high quality mentoring, vast networks and inputs on strategy as well as execution to our students